

How much unique signal does each benchmark contribute?
(higher = more independent information)

